Payments and refund policy

All deposits of 1,000 euros are to be received when registering for the training, along with postdated checks for the remaining amount (split evenly before the start of the training but no later than one month before the intensive begins). The deposit is non-refundable once the course material has been emailed - there will be no refund of deposits. You may have the amounts of the post-dated checks returned up until one month before the training. However, after one month before the intensive, all checks will be cashed whether the trainee completes the course or not. We can hold a space for you to take the training the following year. An amount of 250 euros is required for all extension of the deadline of the training up to 10 months maximum (see brochure).
